

Little Bolton Terrace, Salford, M5 5BD

£500 Per calendar month

It isn't little, it's nowhere near Bolton and its not a terrace so where the name comes from I'm not quite sure, but it is truly pleasant and cosy. Little Bolton Terrace is an incredibly well maintained development, definitely one of the more preferred apartment blocks in the area. It is modern and bright with a lovely living / dining area through to the modern kitchen, there's a double bedroom, a useful sized tiled bathroom and a car parking space via secure gated entry, ask yourself what more do you really need? If the apartment its self doesn't command your attention then the easy access into the new media hub of Salford Quays with its bright lights, new bars and TV stars along with the ever cool Manchester City Centre being on the tram route too, your surely spoilt for choice for an evening out or the daily routine of work. On the cusp of everything but just far out enough to reflect in price, this is an absolutely ideal apartment for someone looking to make a home.
