

The Green Chain Walk, Severndroog Castle with its popular English tea rooms offering views of seven counties, the ancient Oxleas Woodland and a couple of cosy traditional pubs. Shooters Hill is a real hidden gem, a commuters retreat steeped in History and greenery at the same time offering convenient transport links.

Don't just take our word for it! When asked about being a resident on the hill, the Vendor replied, "I have lived here for 26 years and I have always felt safe and lucky to live in such a welcoming and supportive neighbourhood. The vast majority of my immediate neighbours have also lived here for many years - it is a very settled locality".

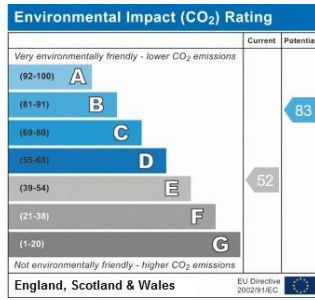

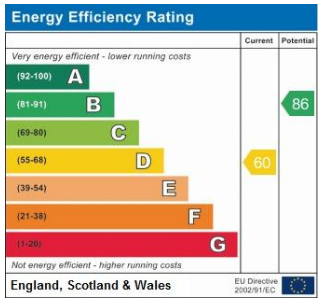

Centrally located for three major towns, Woolwich, Blackheath and Greenwich. Woolwich comes complete with its DLR links and soon to be arriving Crossrail taking you to the city in no time (Canary Wharf in 8 minutes and Bond Street in 22!)

The property itself is a charming 2/3 bedroom Victorian cottage offering versatile living space of the ground floor, two reception rooms on the entrance floor, one of which could be reinstated to a bedroom and two double bedrooms on the top floor.

If the inside hasn't won your heart then the outside will as it offers a large, peaceful and well established private garden. Its southwesterly aspect providing both ample sunshine and areas of shade throughout the day.
