Looks are deceptive!

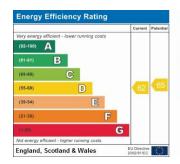

From the outside this looks like an ordinary three bedroom house. What is not apparent is the large rear and side extension adding substantial accommodation to the ground floor. Having a large reception room to the rear over looking the garden, a lovely light bright

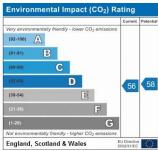

Features include a modern fitted kitchen/breakfast room with some appliances to remain, a utility room, small garage and downstairs cloakroom. There is a pleasant garden to the rear and plenty of off street parking to the front and the house is close to amenities and good schools.

This beautifully presented family home is one not to be missed.
