

Junction Road, Reading
Berkshire RG1 5SA
Asking Price £410,000

Located in the popular University area, Redbrick are proud to bring to market this larger than average mid terraced house. This property has undergone significant refurbishment recently and has a refitted kitchen and bathroom. The property has been rewired and re-carpeted throughout with new windows. This property has good HMO potential and the possibility to explore the student letting market. Full development advice is available to any interested parties.

