Toll House, Belmont Hill, Saffron Walden, Essex, CB11 3RD

Offers in excess of £500,000

Enchanting Grade Two listed three bedroom detached property which was the original toll house for the village. Dating back some three hundred years, it is steeped in history and retains many of its original features. The property benefits from gas central heating and secondary glazing.

The accommodation comprises:- Entrance hall, sitting room and study with exposed red brick double sided fireplace. Dining room with large inglenook fireplace, bespoke fitted kitchen, beautiful downstairs bathroom with free standing roll top bath and separate shower cubicle. Upstairs there are three double bedrooms with en-suite shower rooms to the master and second bedroom.

Large irregular shaped garden which is a true feature of the property. Quaint garden house/guest suites with en-suite shower room. Raised decking area with studio room. The remainder is laid to lawn with mature trees and shrubs leading on to a further storage area at the bottom of the garden with greenhouse and sheds. Double detached garage with electric doors and accommodation above.

The village of Newport benefits from having a mainline railway station which runs from Cambridge to Liverpool Street. There are plenty of shops, restaurants and pubs within walking distance of the property as well as the Joyce Frankland Academy. EPC Exempt
