

Jdm are delighted to offer to the market this charming, 1900s semi detached cottage which maintains much of its original character. The property offers access to Chelsfield and Orpington stations, serving several London termini, as well as green belt countryside.

The accommodation comprises lounge, sitting room and kitchen/diner overlooking the scenic garden. To the first floor is the master bedroom with ensuite shower room, family bathroom and a further three bedrooms.

To the rear is the southerly facing, mainly laid to lawn garden with an array of mature shrubbery. To the front is off street parking.

Internal viewing is essential to fully appreciate all that this semi detached home has to offer.
