Description:

Location, location, location. Though a much over used phrase when it comes to talking about what is the most important factor when considering purchasing your dream home, ultimately it's hard to argue against that logic.

As you might have guessed this fabulous 4 bedroom semi-detached townhouse is in a fantastic location in the heart of Blackheath village yet tucked away in a hidden spot, so that you can enjoy the best of both worlds in terms of convenience and seclusion. Blackheath train station is according to Google maps 0.2 of a mile, so about a 3 minute walk.

Another rare factor about this home is that its approached via a private shared drive which then affords off street parking for a number of cars. The house has a sense of style and is designed for modern day living with a large open plan, living, eating and kitchen space on the ground floor, which can be zoned to be used as different areas to suit your needs. The first floor is given over to the master suit, so you can have your own floor, with the other three bedrooms and family bathroom on the top floor.

The enclosed garden is attractively landscaped and is designed for ease of maintenance with an Astroturf lawn, so rather than having to worry about cutting the lawn you can relax and enjoy the secluded aspect.

All in all a wonderful home in a fabulous location.
