

When you enter this home you immediately feel welcome, such a nice feel to the property which has been well loved by the current buyers. Having converted the garage into an extra reception room of some good size, lending itself to versatile living, if you have elderly parents, teenagers or live in nanny/Au Pair, then this could work perfectly for you.

Just 0.7 of a mile from Elmstead Woods station this is a great location for commuting to London, and also is surrounded by good schools. 2.7 miles from Bromley Town Centre which offers fantastic shopping facilities along with restaurants, etc. There is a bus route close by bus 314 which travels to Bromley North and South.

Including to the ground floor two receptions and a utility room, access to lovely good size garden, first floor having L shaped lounge diner, bright kitchen breakfast room with under floor heating. To the second floor there are three bedrooms serviced by a lovely family bathroom with shower over bath also benefitting from under floor heating. Outside to the front there is a driveway with parking for two cars.

A viewing is a must.
