

A well presented family home with four/five bedrooms and three bathrooms, two of which are ensuite. Features include a large kitchen/breakfast room with a range of quality hand built units with granite worktops and integral appliances, a double glazed conservatory with views over the well kept and secluded rear garden, a good sized study and a dining room.

To the front of the house is an attractive garden and to the rear is a large secluded garden with mature trees and shrubs. A driveway provides access to the single garage and there is an electric gate for added privacy.

The location is good being approximately three quarters of a mile from the nearest station, a mile and three quarters from Chislehurst village centre and Petts Wood town centre.

Early viewing recommended.
