Tucked away on a secluded plot within this exclusive gated development we find this spacious and well presented six bedroom detached house.

Features include a modern fitted kitchen with granite worktops and integral appliances, separate utility room, a large lounge with a conservatory and a separate dining room. The loft offers a good sized games room with access to extensive loft storage.

To the rear is a pleasant secluded garden and to the front is a detached double garage. There is plenty of off street parking and landscaped communal grounds.

The location is excellent being within three quarters of a mile from Chislehurst station and half a mile from Bickley station. Early viewing is recommended.
